

2017 Craftsbury Farmers' Market Vendor Application & Guidelines

Saturdays 5/27/17-10/7/17 10:00am - 1:00pm

Listed below are the guidelines for the Craftsbury Farmers' Market. Please read them over, then send your application with $75 vendor fee made payable to Craftsbury Farmers' Market to:

Koni Stoddard - 814 Gulf Rd - Wolcott, VT 05680

(802) 888-2825 | shamrockz@hotmail.com

Guidelines:

- All products sold will be made or grown by vendor or member of their immediate family.
- Completed application and fee will be due on or before the first market day.
- Vendors are responsible for obtaining any licenses and/or insurance needed for their products.
- You will be required to anonymously report weekly sales totals to the market designee.
- Vendors should arrive no later than 9:30am to set up.
- All vehicles will be moved away from areas adjacent to the Common green after unloading, in order to make parking available to shoppers.
- No driving or parking on the Common green.
- Each vendor will pay a $75 fee. Space fee will cover immediate family. Vendors trying out the market can choose to pay $25/market, up to three markets, at which point they will be paid up for the remaining season. Day vendors must attend at least two markets before being allowed to participate in the Antiques and Uniques weekend's market.
- Children under 18 will be charged their age in dollars for their season fee.
- Non-profit vendors will be charged on a case by case basis. They are expected to charge fair market prices and clearly identify themselves.
- All vendors are expected to take on a task to make the market run smoothly.
- There will be a minimum of two meetings yearly for vendors to attend. If you have ideas or concerns, please bring them to our attention.
- Food vendors must provide and take care of their own trash receptacle.
- Craftsbury Farmers' Market reserves the right to limit the number of similar vendors or product types.
- New vendors should check in with Kris Coville or Koni Stoddard upon arrival to be directed to an available spot for set up.
